

JESSIE A. FOWLER, WORLD'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST, TELLS

TENACITY
 LARGE FIRMNESS
 VENERATION, LARGE
 LARGE SYMPATHIES
 INTUITIVE PERCEPTION of CHARACTER
 ANALYTICAL FACULTY
 INTELLECTUALITY,
 SINCERITY, EYES
 PRACTICAL, SCIENTIFIC
 KEEN PERCEPTION
 LARGE PERCEPTIVE
 FACULTIES
 FORCE of CHARACTER
 (NOSE)
 LONG UPPER LIP
 CONCENTRATION
 SOCIABILITY (LIPS)
 FIXEDNESS of PURPOSE

© BY WYNDHAM
 BLOOMING

Photo-chart of President Wilson's head, made by Miss Fowler

OH, SO SIMPLE

Tarts were on the table, on the dresser—in fact, everywhere. It was the day of Mrs. Swankle's party, and the cook was making great preparations for the feast.

"Very nice—ve'ry nice!" said Mrs. Swankle impressively. "But what a pity, cook—they're all the same."

"No, 'm," replied cook firmly.

"Some's apple and some's raspberry."

"But they're all marked 'T. A.," said the mistress. "How can you tell them apart?"

"Easy, 'm," was the cook's proud explanation. The apple tarts are marked 'T. A.' for 'Tis Apple,' and the raspberry ones are marked 'T. A.' for 'Taint Apple'."